25 TO ALL PARTIES AND TO THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

26 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 17, 2008, at 11:00 a.m., in 27 Courtroom 15 of this Court, located at 940 Front Street, San Diego, California, 28 California, Defendant Quiksilver, Inc. ("Quiksilver") will appear and move the

1 Court for an order dismissing the claims asserted against it in Plaintiff Clayton
2 Blehm, dba FDC Investments, Inc.'s ("Plaintiff") Complaint pursuant to Rule
3 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or, in the alternative, for an order 4 staying this action pending resolution of a prior state court action.

5 Quiksilver moves to dismiss the Complaint on the grounds that 6 Plaintiff's claims are barred by res judicata. Just months ago, in a California state
7 court, the very allegations at issue in this Complaint were tried by Plaintiff before a 8 Court and jury, resulting in a defense verdict on all claims. In an attempted end-run 9 around the Judgment entered in the prior state court action, Plaintiff has filed this 10 action, attempting in his Complaint to conjure up some new basis for filing suit.
11 Most notably, while in the prior action Plaintiff sued DC Shoes, Inc. ("DC Shoes"), 12 the company of which he was formerly Chief Financial Officer, a thirty percent 13 shareholder and director, here he sues Quiksilver – apparently based upon 14 Quiksilver's subsequent acquisition of DC Shoes well after the relevant time period 15 alleged in the Complaint; indeed, Plaintiff alleges no independent basis for his 16 purported claims against Quiksilver. Judgment in the prior state court action was 17 entered and served on Plaintiff's counsel on January 4, 2008. The Judgment 18 therefore became final when Plaintiff failed to timely appeal.¹ Accordingly, 19 Plaintiff's claims should be dismissed on the grounds that they are barred from 20 relitigation by res judicata.

22 ¹ California Rules of Court Rule 8.104 requires that a notice of appeal be filed at the 23 earliest of: (1) 60 days after the party filing the notice of appeal serves or is served with a 24 notice of entry of judgment or a file-stamped copy of the judgment; or (2) the expiration 25 of 180 days. Section 659 of the California Code of Civil Procedure requires that a motion 26 for new trial be filed on the earliest of: (1) 15 days after the clerk's mailing of notice of 27 entry of judgment; (2) 15 days after service by a party of written notice of entry of 28 judgment; or (3) the expiration of 180 days. Despite being served with the Judgment on January 4, 2008, the day it was entered, Plaintiff waited until July 2, 2008 to file both his notice of appeal and notice of intention to move for a new trial. Both were untimely. DC Shoes has thus moved to strike Plaintiff's motion for new trial and has opposed Plaintiff's motion, in part, on the grounds that it was untimely. Additionally, in the event the Court of Appeals does not on its own dismiss Plaintiff's appeal as untimely, DC Shoes intends to move to dismiss that appeal.

1 Even if Plaintiff had timely appealed in the prior state court action and 2 the Judgment therefore was not yet final, this Court should properly exercise its 3 discretion to stay this action pending resolution of the prior state court proceeding 4 under the abstention principles articulated by the United States Supreme Court in 5 Colorado River Water Conservation Dist. v. United States, 424 U.S. 800 (1976).
6 Accordingly, Quiksilver hereby moves the Court, in the alternative, for a stay of 7 this action pending resolution of the prior state court action.

8 Finally, in the event the Court does not dismiss the Complaint on res 9 judicata grounds or stay the action pursuant to Colorado River, Quiksilver moves to 10 dismiss the Complaint for Plaintiff's failure to satisfy the pleading requirements of 11 Rule 9(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

12 This Motion is based upon this Notice of Motion and Motion, the 13 Memorandum of Points and Authorities, Request for Judicial Notice and 14 Declaration of Molly J. Magnuson, all filed concurrently herewith, the argument of 15 counsel, all of the pleadings and other papers on file in this action, and such other 16 matters as may be presented at the hearing on this Motion or prior to the Court's 17 decision.
